How to Report RTD Information: C/TPAs

Return-to-Duty Reporting Requirements
The return-to-duty (RTD) process outlined in Part 40 Subpart Q has not changed. However, employers must report parts of the RTD process in the FMCSA Commercial Driver’s License Drug and Alcohol Clearinghouse (Clearinghouse).

A consortium/third-party administrator (C/TPA) may assist an employer in meeting their Clearinghouse requirements. To report RTD information on behalf of an employer, you must accept the employer’s designation request (to receive this request, you must be). The employer must indicate that you have permission to report RTD information on their behalf.

Even if they designate a C/TPA, the employer retains ultimate responsibility for compliance.

EMPLOYERS THAT DO NOT WORK WITH A C/TPA MUST REPORT RTD INFORMATION THEMSELVES; SEE THE REPORTING RTD INFORMATION FOR EMPLOYERS JOB AID FOR INSTRUCTIONS.

Which Types of RTD Information are Employers Responsible for Reporting?
Both employers and substance abuse professionals (SAPs) are required to report information about a CDL driver’s RTD process in the Clearinghouse, per § 382.705. The table below identifies who is responsible for reporting specific information to the Clearinghouse throughout the RTD process. Learn more about the RTD process.

*Owner-operators—employers who employ themselves as CDL drivers, typically a single-driver operation—are required to designate a C/TPA in the Clearinghouse. Owner-operators may choose to report RTD information for any other drivers they employ; however, the C/TPA has the responsibility to report any RTD information pertaining to the owner-operator.

You will need to provide the following driver information:

- Driver first and last name
- Driver date of birth
- Driver commercial driver’s license (CDL) number, and the country and state of issuance

If there is an issue verifying the driver’s CDL information, please check that you have entered all the information correctly and re-submit. You will have two attempts to enter the driver’s information correctly.

If the driver's CDL information cannot be verified, the RTD information cannot be reported.

If the CDL number has special characters (such as spaces or hyphens), try entering the number with or without those characters, as requirements vary by State.

Once a driver’s CDL information has been verified, you will not be able to edit it. If you entered the driver’s information in error, click Cancel and begin a new RTD information entry. When you are ready to continue, click Next.
